VICEROY RESTAURANT SUPPORTS DA VINCI FUNDRAISING

On Thursday 1 April 2010, Yeovil College's Da Vinci Restaurant will be holding its annual fundraising dinner in conjunction with the Viceroy Indian Restaurant.

Level 2 and 3 Hospitality students will work alongside chefs from the Viceroy Indian Restaurant to provide diners with a menu of Indian cuisine. Service will start at 7.00 and a meal will cost between £10 and £15.

The event is to raise money so that each Level 2 and 3 Hospitality student has the opportunity to go on the course's annual visit to Normandy, France. The students spend five days in the country learning about local food and taking tours of relevant sites.

Hospitality lecturer Steven Lowrie said "We're very grateful to the Viceroy Restaurant for their ongoing support, particularly in relation to this event. It's very important that students gain educational experiences outside the College, which is why we encourage as many students as possible to take advantage of our trip to Normandy. The money from this event allows students to go who couldn't otherwise afford it, so everyone gets the same chance to take part."
