Performing Arts

Where will you study?

If you have a passion for the performing arts and the drive to succeed then this is the course for you!

Our award-winning Performing Arts course is the only one in Somerset delivered by a professional theatre company, Wassail Theatre Company.

You will become a member of Wassail's company for two years, during which time a team of performing arts professionals will help you learn new on and off-stage skills in theatre, circus, singing and dance.

Former Yeovil College Performing Arts students have pursued careers as performers, producers, technicians, journalists and teachers, amongst others.

Which level is right for me?

We have a course to suit everyone, at all levels and abilities.

"There are many exciting developments happening within the Performing Arts department, including the development of a Theatre Academy in partnership with local professional theatre company, Wassail. This will bring unparalleled experiences to our students, which will include creating lots of live performances, supporting Wassail's professional shows, and getting involved with the arts across Somerset. We have recognised that Performing Arts requires a specialist approach and we have lined up leading local professionals to deliver each aspect of our programme. This gives our students the edge. Students will perform on campus and in the community on a regular basis. They'll take several trips to different professional settings throughout the year and will be inspired and motivated to be all that they can be."

Andy Holmes, Curriculum Area Manager for Performing Arts, Yeovil College.

Did you know?

Our Performing Arts partner Wassail is Somerset's Theatre Company. Wassail is regularly funded by Arts Council England to create original performances for audiences all over Somerset and the south-west. Their shows have included tours to pubs, village halls, churches, shops and people's houses as well as 'site-specific' shows in nature reserves and across the Somerset Levels. Wassail's associate artists and fellow Performing Arts department members include international circus-theatre company Pirates of the Carabina and the acclaimed Lissy Jane Vocal Coach.
