

PRE-ENTRY AND INTERNAL PROGRESSION ADVICE & GUIDANCE POLICY

1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

- 1.1 The purpose of pre-entry advice and guidance is to ensure the most appropriate programme is chosen to meet each student's needs and future career aspirations. This policy responds to the colleges responsibility to offer impartial Careers Education, Information, Advice, and Guidance (CEIAG), in line with the Education Inspection Framework (Ofsted). It will provide sufficient information about proposed programmes of study to allow students to make informed choices and will provide the opportunity to discuss career aspirations and options with careers advisors and other relevant experts.
- 1.2 Purpose
- 1.3 The college is committed to ensuring every learner has the opportunity to access guidance interviews with a qualified career advisor whenever significant study or career choices are being made. All CEIAG guidance meets professional standards of practice and is person centred, impartial and confidential.

2. SCOPE

- 2.1 All students considering or intending to study at college are entitled to pre-entry Careers, Education Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG). Advice and guidance will be provided in many forms such as: prospectuses, college website, social media, open days, taster events and enrolment events; by telephone; and face-to-face through the Student and Customer Services team, the Careers team, curriculum staff, the Employer Engagement team, and the Student Experience team.
- 2.2 Careers, Education, Information, Advice, and Guidance can be provided on any one of the following: -
 - Returning to education and training
 - Advice on funding opportunities and support for both individuals and employers
 - Updating skills
 - Explaining the value of current qualifications including Maths and English
 - Qualifications and accreditation for courses offered by the college.
 - Learning and practical support for those who need it including emotional support and transitions programme.
 - Starting or continuing professional qualifications
 - Training needs analysis for employers
 - Labour Market information
 - Advice on transport and support services
 - Progression examples of how qualifications can lead to other training and/or job opportunities.
 - Specialist advice and guidance on education and training opportunities at Yeovil College and The Yeovil College University Centre (YCUC
 - Choosing and applying to higher education
- 2.3 All full-time and part-time students and apprentices will be offered an initial interview, with an appropriate member of staff before committing to enrol onto a course. School leavers will be offered an interview when they first apply, with the opportunity to access further CEIAG as part of the application - enrolment process. The initial interview will normally take place at the College or via teams/ telephone and parents/guardians are invited to attend the interviews if they wish. Where an applicant requires a face-to-face interview and has difficulty in getting to the College, an interview may be arranged at their school or mutually agreed venue.

- 2.4 Any students attending a school who are 14-16 or part of a Partnership programme arrangement with their school will also be invited to interview, which may involve a practical assessment.
- 2.5 All part-time students will have the opportunity to access further CEIAG as part of the application - enrolment process with a member of the Student and Customer Services team, or specialist staff, at or before enrolment. Some courses may not require advice and guidance before enrolment (but full details will be available on the website and through the prospectus)
- 2.6 In special circumstances, the College accepts part-time applications from students under the age of 16. The College reserves the right to offer a limited and part time programme to students under the age of 16. To provide appropriate CEIAG such students will normally be required to attend an interview with a parent or guardian present.
- 2.7 Employers will be given advice on the most appropriate training for employees, or company, by the curriculum area leads and the Employer Engagement team.
- 2.8 Applicants for full-time Higher Education courses will use the UCAS system and will be invited to attend an open day to gain specific CEIAG from programme managers. For part time courses, CEIAG will be offered on receipt of application. Open events, the prospectus and website provide detailed information of the courses.

3. RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY

- 3.1 The scope covered by this policy is wide, and responsibility for the implementation of various aspects of pre-entry advice and guidance falls within the roles of several different staff, coordinated by the appropriate member of the Senior Management Team (SMT).
- 3.2 The application to interview process and its associated arrangements are managed by the Student and Customer Services team in collaboration with Curriculum Leaders, Head of Student Experience, Head of MIS, and Exams and the Head of Marketing and Communications.
- 3.3 The implementation of the policy is monitored through meeting the standards set by the Matrix Quality Award for CEIAG services and by quality assurance checks on Interviews and enrolment procedures. Further review takes place at enrolment events, an enrolment survey of part-time students, and through the Student Survey. The processes are overseen by SMT via the Curriculum Leaders.
